Social Briefs.

Miss Amy Pike gave an impromptu musicale last Friday evening.

the decorating wa.: placed. Trimmings of brilliant red interspersed with holiday green covered the walls, while from each of the chandellers were hung great ropes of smilax. Curtains of holly and mistletoe graced the north wall leading to the receiving parlor, which was done antirely in white and value. Fig. room, and here the tables and the walls were in red and white. Broad ribbons of the scarlet color crossed each of the tables, while at each place shone the brilliant hue of the poncettias which were to indicate the positions. In the corners of the hall were placed elegant divans, covered with cushiors, and surdivans, covered with cushiof's, and sur-rounded by luxuriant rugs. Punch was served throughout the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harris were assisted in receiving by Colonel and Mrs. Holmes, the Misses Holmes, Dr. and Mrs. J. Vernon White of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Lamb of Park City, Mrs. Sara E. Brausford and Miss Emery.

Military Dance.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the hop given at the military post by the officers and ladies stationed there. The large dancing hall which has held so many brilliant datherings in the past was beautifully decorated with the flags of the three orders—artillery, infantry and signal corps. A delicious supper was served in the officers' club under the management of Mrs. Walden. The officers were in full uniform, and the gowns of the ladies were very beautiful.

Among those who attended from town were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp, Judge and Mrs. King, Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen of Ogden, Bishop Leon-ard, Mrs. Breeden, Mrs. Burns Macdon-Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Margie Miller, Miss Florence Stevenson, Miss Dern, Miss Young, Miss Valung, Miss Voung, Miss Voung, Miss Sallie Leonard, Miss Sallie Leonard, Miss Sallie Leonard, Miss Sallie Leonard, Miss Breeden, Miss Plant Leonard, Miss Ridge, Miss Judge, Miss May Messrs, Roscoe Breeden, Sam Porter, George Lawrence, Frank Judge, Van Brunt, Will Schoppe, Ed Thorn, Cunningham.

**Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Margie Mrs. Holmes gave a very enjoyable dinner party in honor of their guests from the east, followed by a theatre party to the performance of "Henry VIII." The table was spread for twelve, and besides the guests of the hostess, the guests sat down to a delicious supper as the New Year was given by Miss Della Burns New Year's eve and bid the old year good-bye. Cards and music were features. Prizes were won by Mrs. Prank Earl and Ed Needham, and the consolation was given to James Dinwoodey. Mr. Will Needham having the least numningham.

**Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton will entertain the ladies of the Utopia club at the Knutsford hotel on Wednesday after-poon next.

**The Oak Leaf club are to be discussed.**

**A very charming skating party was given by Miss Della Burns New Year's given by Miss Della Burns New Year's given by Miss Dolla Burns New Year's given by Miss Della Burns New Yea sisted in receiving by Mrs. Harkness, Mr. Robert Harkness and his bride, and and Miss Ora Harkness. Deficious punch was served throughout the after-noon and evening, and in the difing-room were seen the Misses Sherman and Nason. Miss Sprague, Miss Lowe and Miss Woodward. Delightful music was furnished during the day and evening, and the guests continued to arrive till a late hour.

At Mrs. McClure's.

Mrs. McClure's "at home" on Wednesday was one of the delightful events The handsome home of of the week. The handsome home of Judge and Mrs. Miner was decorated in the holiday colors—red predominating in everything. Mrs. McClure was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mrs. B. S. Ferry, Mrs. Frank Jennings and Mrs. Rob Walker. Mrs. Lear Riter and Miss Lucile Jennings presided over the bowl of eggnog, while Miss Thorn poured coffee. Among the many callers were seen the governor

Miss Breeden's At Home.

One of the most delightful of the man; informal at homes of Wednesday last was that of Miss Bartch and Miss Breeden at the home of the latter. The parlors were tastefully decorated with the holiday colors, and shad 4 lights gave the cosy glow of evening, Re-freshments appropriate to the time were served by Miss Fannie Breeden in an adjoining room. Among those who called were many of the young officers from the fort and a large num-ber of the younger social set from a most enjoyable affair. The whole was in the hands of Mr. Heintz, and was admirably managed. The large private dining room was beautifully rated with plants and cut flowers A centerpiece of link Loraine begon-ias, from which stretched ropes of smi-lax formed the main table decoration, party for the east.

Dinner to Mr. Sharp.

Those who sat at the board were Governor Wells, Dr. Bascom, Dr. D. Moore Lindsay, Dr. Worthington, Judge John in the city—the ball given on Monday last by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Tarvin Harris at Christensens' hall. The large hall was transformed into a bower of beauty by the artists in whose hands and holding red cadelabra with red shades beauty by the artists in whose hands and holding red cadelabra were in hones.

vas beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses and smilax. Above the table was suspended an immense Japanese umbrella in the prevailing colors. Mrs. Macdonald was assisted by Mrs. Duke Baxter. There were present about thirty guests, and a most delightful social hour was spent.

Watch Party.

At the home of her sister, Mrs. Waldemar Van Cott, Miss Lucy Van Cott entertained a merry party of friends at a "watch party." The evening's enter-tainment consisted of a story-telling contest, and in this the prizes were awarded to Bishop O. T. Whitney, Pro-fessor J. B. Toronto and Miss Nora Van Cott. The guests of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pyper, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Price, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Beatie, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Woldens, Von Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Van Cott, Mrs. W. W. Riter, Mrs. Eva Y. Davis, Mrs. Van Cott, Misses Babcock, Siddoway, Mary Price, Pearl Van Cott. Mr. Scott Crismon, Professor J. B. To-ronto, Mr. John Winder.

borne, Ada Thompson, Edith Granger, Susie Nipper, Mabel Robinson, Edna Schultz and Jean Odell.

At Sixty-three.

Miss Elizabeth Palmer entertained at ards on the evening of the 2d. The cards on the evening of the 2d. The game of the evening was sixty-three, the prizes being won by Mr. Jennings and Miss Janette Murdoch. Those present were: Misses Alice Beeman, Janette Murdoch, Margaret Hartwell, Edna Wiscomb, Mamie Parker, Bessie Pike, Kate Flynn, Haines, Andrew, Lotack and Palmer, Messrs. Smith, Nut tal, Kneass, Jennings, Pitts, Andrew and Stanchfield.

Merry Evening.

Mr. Fairchild and Miss Mary Sher-man gave a delightful "ghost story party' last Thursday evening. Prize vere awarded those most proficient in the gentle art of story-telling, and his staff and many of the state Traddles Patterson carried off the first prize. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Mildred McMillan, Alta Rawlins, Susan Sawyer, Helen Bamberger, Eloise Sadler, Mamie Sappington, Bes-sie McMillan, Traddles Patterson, Roger Sherman, Erle Daveler, Harold Hef-fron, Sherwin Davis, Earnest Sadler, Will Castleton, Lee Turner.

At Cards.

Miss Alexander and Miss Martha Alexander were hostesses at an enjoyable sixty-three party on Thursday after-noon. The rooms were brightened with a wealth of earnations, holly and Christmas greens. Prizes were won by Miss Bartch and Miss Williamson. The players were: Mrs. Curtis of Philadelphia, Mrs. G. Duncan, Mrs. Silver Misses Bartch, Williamson, Sowles The elegant dinner party given on Friday evening last at the Alta club in honor of Mr. William G. Sharp was souri, Amy Black, Strickley, Barbara souri, Amy Black, Strickley, Barbara Kinnersley, Clayton, McKnight, Croft.

At Home.

One of the most informal of "at homes" was that at the home of Mrs. while the places were indicated by the brilliant pink of the poncettia foliage. The dimper was given as a farewell party for Mr. Sharp, who leaves shorting for the east. John Pike, where Mrs. Jack Alford, were used effectively in the table dec-orations. A throng of callers came and went throughout the afternoon and

Lindsay. Dr. Worthington, Judge John
A. Marshall, Major George M. Downey,
Messra W. S. McCornick, J. Barnett, T.
R. Jones E. B. Wicks, George W.
Heintz, W. F. Colton, A. F. Holden,
George Y. Wallace, George M. Scott,
M. S. Pendergast, A. E. Weiby, E. J.
Yard, Hugh Anderson, W. V. Rice, T.
Ellis Browne, David Keith and H. G.
Williams.

A Drinty Luncheon.

Last Monday afternoon Miss Hattie Jennings entertained at a luncheon, complimentary to her guest, Miss Maud
Lewis of Ogden, Pink was the color chosen for the decorations, and the scheme of color was admirably carried went throughout the afternoon and evening.

Went throughout the afternoon and
evening.

Went throughout the afternoon and
evening.

A University Party.

Miss Minnie Margetts and Mrs. Angie
Gace M. Allison, Salt Lake.

Margaret Lyle, Salt Lake.

Margaret Ly

The past week has been one of the gayest seen in the city for many days. Beginning the new year many festivities were expected, but the close of the old was equally merry. From now on till the beginning of Lent, society promises a round of parties of all descriptions, from the "pink tea" to the more delignitul large affair of the dancing order. Many young and brilliant society people from other burgs are suests of the social caders for a few weeks, and many will be the delignitul small events whit's lead to larger ones in the 'early months of spring and summer.

The Harris Ball.

The Harris Ball.

The week began with one of the largest, and, in matters of decoration. Miss Verne Patterson, Miss Molile McClelland and Miss Campbell. After darks and games the company sat designs and games the company sat decided and sand games the company sat designs in silver and crimson.

The Assembly.

The Assembly.

The third of the series of assembles for the winter occurred Thursday night was of the social caders for a few weeks, and many will be the delightful was of the social caders for a few weeks, and many will be the delightful was of the social caders for a few was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and a delicious supper was served to the largest, and, in matters of decoration.

The Harris Ball.

The week began with one of the largest, and, in matters of decoration was prived the gauest of the social calib in the ladies' Literation of the largest, and, in matters of decoration.

Two High Teas.

Two High Teas.

Two High Teas.

The week began with one of the largest, and, in matters of decoration was prived the gauest of the word of the largest, and, in matters of decoration was prived the gauest of the word of the largest, and, in matters of decoration was prived the gauest of the largest and the color of the largest, and, in matters of decoration was prived the gauest of the largest and the color of the largest, and in matters of decoration.

The week began with one of the largest hall. The large hall the city of Eva Lambert, Ida Sconberg, Myrtle Robinson, Barbara Brown, Emily Farnes, J. Brown, M. C. Perkes, Emma ing to the receiving parlor, which was done entirely in white and yellow. Fir trees of graded height vere used as a background, in which were banked bright yellow chrysanthemums and pure white Easter lilies. Brilliant electric lights studded these throughout, and the effect was most beautiful. The south hall was used for the M. A. Nelden, Mrs. O. E. Carey and Miss Leonard. Nearly 100 guests called during the two afternoons.

A Buffet Luncheon.

On Wednesday last Mrs. Burns Macdonald entertained a number of her friends at a buffet luncheon. The table was beautifully decorated with Amer-

Child's Party.

rear's eve when several of the young friends of Master Monte Elliott surprised him in celebration of his thirteenth birthday. Social games were played until the control of the control of the young being the control of the young for eight. The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott was the scene of gayety New Year's eve when several of the young played until the old year died and then refreshments were served. Composing the surprise party were: Misses Jeanne Clayton, Elda Havenor, Gertrude Clayton, Edna Margetts, Ethel Rumel, Amy ton, Edna Margetts, Ethel Rumel, Amy Rumel, Celia Wardrop, Viola Rager, Beth Skilhorn, Claire Bowring, Edith Casady, Elva Gundry, Annie Elliott, Newell Whitney, Earl Havenor, Francis McEntee, Ralph Whitney, Charlie Price, Olof Erickson, Fred Bowring, Lloyd Bowring, Weir Casady, James Alley, Harry Alley, Ward Casady.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Romney entertained the Card club at their home last Thursday night.

⊕ ⊕ ⊕

Miss Stella Daynes entertained at a pleasant dancing party at her home in

Progressive Dinner.

Last Monday evening prior to attending the Harris ball, Mrs. John Judson gave a most delightful 'progressive' dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Evans of Denver. Dainty tables, decorated in red and white, were spread for twenty guests, and a delicious menu served. Later the guests proceeded to the density results in a Mrs. J. S. Evans of Denver. Dainty tables, decorated in red and white, were spread for twenty guests, and a delicious menu served. Later the guests proceeded to the dancing party in a body.

**Note: The marriage of Miss Ruth Wolf of Denver to Mr. Claude Freed of this city will be solemnized on Wednesday, Jan. 8.

**A service of the date of the dancing party in a body.

**The marriage of Miss Ruth Wolf of Denver to Mr. Claude Freed of this city will be solemnized on Wednesday, Jan. 8.

New Year's Reception,

Amost delightfully appointed luncheon was given by Miss Luvers Snow on Friday to her classmates, the freshmen the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson Sharp was probably the most elaborate. Beautiful decorations added to the charm of the home, where the host and hostess were asferns and holly. The not-to-be-forgot-ten mistletoe bough was there also. eon at the home of her mother on Clifford Young, Evan Gammett, Charles Erickson, Harold Reynolds, Gobe Al-The guests were the Misses Coombs, Amy and Isabel Os- ford, Jack Hyde, Earl Jensen and Bur-

Thursday last.

and the new heartily welcomed.

served in an appropriate manner,

In honor of her sister, Mrs. Dr. E

Invitations for the High school cadet

Wednesday morning, at the home of

On Tuesday last at St. Mark's cathedral occurred the marriage of Miss Nettie S. Mann to Mr. J. D. Spratly, held in honor of the bride and groom to postpone their visit to the mines of Park City till another time. Mr.

Park City till another time. Mr. Bransford, Dr. J. Vernon White and

Mr. McMillan made the trip, however, returning to the city last evening.

♦ ♦ ♦
Mrs. C. H. Loring gave an elegant

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Lor-

Hansen, Mr. C. Loring of Park City and H. A. Hansen.

the season's successes

street.

Surprise Party.

The residence of Mr. Seymour Naylor was the scene of an enjoyable sur-prise party given in honor of Mrs. Naylor's birthday. A programme had been prepared and some excellent musical numbers were rendered. A peanut hunt was engaged in, Miss Ella Derr receiving the prize.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs.

Seymour Naylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Eddington, Mrs. Francis Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bell, Miss Ella Derr, Miss Bessie Clark, Dr. H. A. Anderson, Mrs. George Naylor, Miss Naylor, the Misses Susie, Violet, Lois and Daisy Clark, Mr. W. R. Derr and Mr. Ed-

New Year's Supper.

Miss Hazel Parry entertained a num ber of her friends at her home, 544 West First North street, New Year's eve. A very delightful evening was spent, the special feature being the programme. As the whistles announced party on New Year's to eight of her the new year the guests sat down to a friends dainty repast, after which games wer enjoyed. Those participating in th happy event were the Misses Nellie Hunt, Pearl Fairclough, Myrtle Fair-10th, will be out Monday. The cadets clough, Hazel Parry, Estella Goodyear, will try to make their party one of Ester Lyoid, Agnes Olson, Ruby Knight, Sarah Parry, Ileene Pratt and Clara Palmer; the Messrs. Arthur Winter, Nelson Bleak, Edgar Goodyear, Chris Anderson, Ed Surloin, Roscoe Surloin, Will Fletcher, Chester Knight, Mr. Howard H. Lawson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Berg, Charles Dadley and Alley Lawson left immediately for a trip to

Watch Party.

Miss F'orence Cushing was the hostess of a very delightful watch party on Tuesday evening. Music and games were indulged in, after which a very dainty supper was served, covers being laid for sixteen. After supper dance ing was indulged in till the wee sma' hours. Those present were the Misses Daisy Cushing, Tene Bowman, Alice Wickens, Florence Nott, Olive Cushing Fla Hosgland, Grace Skidmore.

At the home of her parents, on North Main street, last Wednesday evening, Miss Rachel McMaster was married to Mr. Howard A. Fitch A reception was Miss Amy Pike, Miss Stevenson and Miss Beulah Bachman received their friends last Wednesday. The house Loveridge, Charles Thomas, Will Sears. Erskine, Bert Nott, Cliff Young, Robert Batley, Franklin Cushing.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have seen issued during the past week by the

On Friday evening Misses Elvira and Laura Parr, Miss Thorup, Mr. Musser, Mr. Roy Hawkins and Miss Lillie Hawwere the guests of Misses Daisy Ruby Derr and were enjoyably entertained by a serenade from the John Lyle, 72 East Third South street, Rev. Brown officiating. Dainty re-freshments were served immediately after the ceremony to a few relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Stuart will go to the coast for a honeymoon.

Miss Jessie Home entertained a number of her friends on New Year's evening, at her home on East First South street. A pleasant evening was passed in social chat and games. Those pres-ent were Misses Cherry, Cohn, Morrison, Lewis, Scofield, Hermans and Home, and Messrs. Wheeler, Evans, Rogers, Smith, Andrew and Goodwin.

Miss Marie Jensen gave a very enjoyeve. Guessing games was the chief feature of the evening. Those present were the Misses Engberg, Morton, Jensen, Lenzie, Free and Wallace, and Messrs. Jenkins, Young, O'Connor, Fletcher, Castleton, Burton, Ryan, Robbins and Williams.

evening, also some fine recitations by little Miss Lilly Shores, after which a dainty supper was served by the hostess. The club then adjourned to meet Jan. 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. Steiner Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Balley, Mr. and Mrs. Semore Bailey, Mr. S. A. Arthur, Mr. Steiner Bail W. Staines.

few friends at their home New Year's eve. Cards were indulged in until midnight, when refreshments were served. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all. Those present were the Misses Birkinshaw, Miss Russell, Miss King, Miss Grames, Miss Healy, Miss farmstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Grames, Mr. R. J. Grames, Mr. Frank Herrick, Mr. G. C. Calvert, Mr. Frank Hall, Mr. Ed Puzey. few friends at their home New Year's Mr. and Mrs. Orson Romney enter-Miss Stella Daynes entertained at a pleasant dancing party at her home in Forest Dale last Friday night.

The Opal club will resume its regular socials on next Wednesday even-ing at the former place of meeting, the Dean and Mrs. Eddie will entertain the boy choristers of St. Mark's ca-thedral at dinner on Wednesday, Jan. Ladies' Literary club house. The mem-bers are requested to keep in mind the fact that cards will be played begin-ning promptly at 8 o'clock, instead of a half-hour later, as formerly. All > ber of games was presented with a bot-tle of "catch up." After a most enjoy-able evening and many good wishes, Mrs. Will Needham Thursday,

Jan. 11. Friday night a most enjoyable party was given by the Misses Godbe, Earl and Hilton at the home of Miss Godbe An informal social was given by Miss Plattie Barlow at her home, 106 'enter street, New Year's eve. Dainty re-freshments were served at midnight while the whistles announced the Y. w Dr. and Mrs. Pinkerton, Colonel and Mrs. Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Remington made up a stall party at the Theatre New Year's night. Year. Games and cards were the fea-tures of the pleasant evening's enter-tainment; also musical selections and Miss Eisie Riter will have a few of her young friends to spend the evening with her tonight, at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. W. Riter.

♦ ♦ ♦ recitations. Those present were Misses Hattie Barlow, Ella Maddox, Eva Simms, Myrtle Robinson, Hazel Pov-man, Mary Barlow and Annie Erick-son; Messrs, Quinn, Harrison, Frank-land, Tripp and Bagley. At her home, Tuesday evening, a few The chaperons for the university friends met with Miss Emma Sander-son. Adieux were bid to the old year party next Friday evening are Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Kingsbury, Mrs. Vivian McCune, Mrs. Miss Alma Chandler entertained the J. L. Rawlins and Mrs. Egbert Rob-erts. This is the first of a series of Klu Klux Klub on Monday. It being the closing session for 1901, it was obuniversity parties to be given this year, and every effort will be made to make it successful. The committee Mrs William Reid entertained the having the affair in charge is Misses Card club and a few extra guests at a most pleasant "watch party" on Tues-Josephine Wells, May Billings, Mable Harker, Daisy Raybould, Lida Raw-lins and Messrs. Elbert Thomas, Presday evening, at her home on Harvard ton Cannon, Will Ray, Will Dune and

The U. & I. Crystal club was in full attendance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Strickland Thursday evening, in spite of the rain and mud, to enjoy another of their "always pleas-ing" entertainments. High-five, "the ball, to be given at the armory on the old story," resulted in first prizes being awarded to Mrs. C. A. Strickland and Mr. I. Harvey, second prizes to Mrs. I. Harvey and Mr. J. Timms. A sumptuous repast enhanced the festivities and caused the young year to appear tuous repast can de young year to appear and caused the young year to appear and caused the young year to appear and caused the young year to appear to the smilling in bright and youthful hope. After a musical programme by the club band the club adjourned to meet in for Los Angeles to spend the remainder of the winter there.

Year's party, with a bounteous supper, was given by Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Ridd at their residence, 664 West Fourth Dean Eddie officiating. On Wednesday a reception was given for the young people at 457 West Fourth South South street. Those present were Mr, and Mrs. William Jones, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Ridd, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Player, Mr and Mrs. W. J. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Langton, Mr. and Mrs J. H. Player, jr., Miss Cora Play-er, Mr. Willard Mitchell, Miss Birdie Vincent, Miss Clarabell Peterson, Mr. from 8 till 11 o'clock, and many friends called to extend cordial greetings.

On account of the unpleasant weather yesterday morning, the ladies of Mrs. Holmes' house party were obliged to restrong their yield to the mines of John R. Jones.

A very pleasant surprise party was given last week to Miss Annie Levy at her home, 214 East Fifth South street The evening was spent in a game of progressive high five. Miss Ida Petro-vitzky and Mr. Myers won the first prizes. Very dainty refreshments were served about 11:30 o'clock. Those pres-ent were Mr. and Mrs. M. Levy, Mr. dinner on New Year's day. The table was beautifully decorated with smilax and carnations. Covers were laid for and Mrs. Petrovitzky, the Misses Petrovitzky, Bertha Brodie, Bertha Sal-menson, Clara Haymenson, Eva menson, Clara Haymenson, Eva Reime, Celia Levy and Annie Levy; ing, Mr. and Mrs. Rivers, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Miss Adele Loring, Miss Ella Messrs. Sickle, Salmenson, Myers, Br die, Rutlarb and Spitzer. The remain-der of the time was spent in games, Hyrum Harms on Monday. The table or of Mr. Will R. Sibley, prior to his was tastefully arranged and a most departure for New York. Cards were delicious luncheon was served. The prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Rob-skidmore and Mr. Read, consolation by Mr. Floyd Knickerbocker of Colorado is the guest during the holidays of Mr. Floyd Knickerbocker of Colorado is the guest during the holidays of Mr. Smith, Robinson and Clark. Miss Josie Mulvany charmingly en-tertained at her home Friday evening. present Mr. and Mrs. F. Gardner, Mrs Music and games were features of the evening. Those who enjoyed the feast were: Messrs. Whittemore, E. M. Keysor, W. M. Sanderson, Cannon, Misses Whitehead, E. Sanderson, Josie Mulvany, Etta Smith.

Rivers, Misses Emily Rogers, Abbie evening. Grace Skidmore, Ella were: Jones, Grace Skidmore, Ella were: Lead of Skidmore, Whitehead, E. Sanderson, Josie Mulvany, Etta Smith.

Helge Hansen, Will R. Sibley, Doris Shurtleff, M. Read, Oscar Rydvall, Lawrence Mariger and Charles Loring. Lawrence Mariger and Charles Loring.

Some young ladies from the High school have a habit of meeting occa-sionally under the name of the "D. D." club. This club was entertained Fri-day afternoon at a Russian Dolmas tea pleasing features for the guests' enter-tainment, and which were voted a success.

Miss Vera A. Felt of Ninth North and Second West had an invasion of friends on New Year's eve, being also the young lady's birthday eve. The evening was spent very pleasantly in games, singing and social chat, and as the being the programment. the boisterous midnight announcement of the dawn of a new year was made, the merry company sat down to sup-per, after which the hostess was made the recipient of many loving wishes for a happy New Year. guests were in attendance, with Miss Selma Fernstrom and Miss Lizzle Bohman as chief conspirators: Misses able party at the home of her sister, Bohman as chief conspirators: Misses Mrs. Agnes O'Connor, on New Year's Lizzie Bohman, Leona Goddard, Nellie

The Social Evening club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bench on New Year's eve, and all spent an enjoyable time watching the old year die away and the new year come in. Music and singing were the features of the the game being sixty-three, after which The engagement.

In the engagement of the engagement of the control of the engagement of the holidays at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Holmes, leave this morning for the east. Mrs. Holmes and her sister, Mrs. Harris, will accompany them, and go on to Washington for a few weeks of the gayeties there.

Mrs. A. W. Felt entertained at dinner last Thursday. Covers were laid for eight.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Vernon White, the Misser, who have made a merry house party for the holidays at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Holmes, leave this morning for the east. Mrs. Holmes and her sister, Mrs. Harris, will accompany them, and go on to Washington for a few weeks of the gayeties there. On the way Mrs. Holmes will place her daughter, Miss Emery, in school again for the remainder of the year.

A most enjoyable New Year's even party was given by Madge Harley and Chrystal Brown Kay at the Cannon of inter-Mr. Thomas Lemon, Mr. C. H. Clive,

A most enjoyable New Year's every party was given by Madge Harley and Chrystal Brown Kay at the Cannon House in honor of Mrs. G. F. Taylor. Amongst the various games of Interest was the donkey party, the first prize being awarded to Mr. Irving Merchants and the consolation to Mrs. Bancroft. This was followed by piano and yoral selections by the Misses Harand vocal selections by the Misses Harley, Kay and Mr. Bowman Johnson. The guests of the evening were Mrs. G. F. Taylor, A. Rumel, Estella Bancroft, Tina Elliott. Nellie Maclean, Mary Chapman, Madge Elliot, Margaret Harley, Chrystal B. Kay and Ollie Taylor; the Messrs. Dr. J. F. Ritchie, Irving Merchants, Henry Williams, Charles Wing, Bowman Johnson, Sam Ashby, Ed Harley, ir., William Elliot and vocal selections by the Misses Har-Ashby, Ed Harley, jr., William Elliot and Harry Davis. Supper was served at the break of the New Year, after which dancing was continued until

The evening was pronounced by all who participated a most enjoyable one.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. Carey is in the city visiting her

Miss Vera Lane entertained a party last Friday evening. Mr. A. O. Smoot of Provo was in

Mrs. Felt will be at home the second Wednesday of each month.

Mr. Guy Eldredge is in Provo visiting his sister, Mrs. Reed Smoot.

Buffington of Reno, Nev., were united in marriage Monday at the Reed hotel by Rev. Goshen.

♦ ♦ ♦

Miss Emma Lucy Gates is in the city, with Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton. ⊕ ♦ ♦ Major and Mrs. Breeden spent the

Miss Emily Whitney has been spend-

Miss Sylvia Cohn leaves this morning for the east. She will be gone all Miss Cordelia Green has spent the colidays with her friend, Mrs. Harry Knowles. ♦ ♦ ♦ Mrs. Ernest R. Eldredge of Portland is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Joseph E. Caine.

Miss Winnie Welby returned from her visit to Philadelphia last Tuesday

Mr. Ralph Bidwell is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bidwell during the holidays.

veek for Los Angeles for the rest of the winter. Miss Sallie Leonard left last Thurs-

Mrs. Fred Simon and daughter of Park City are in the city, the guests of Mrs. Rachel Miller.

Miss Van Fleet of Denver is in the last excity, visiting her cousins, Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. F. D. Bickford. Last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Victor M. Clement left to spend the remainder of the winter in Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rooklidge went east Wednesday night to spend a few weeks at their home in Chicago.

Miss Florence Grant, who has been in Ogden during the holidays, returns to her home this morning.

Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Haddenham, Miss Nellie Christie and G. C. Patch were united in marriage by Bishop J. Woth-

Mr. and Mrs, Henry Dinwoodey ac-empanied Mr. William T. Dinwoodey o California last Wednesday. Dinwoodey Mrs. John McVicker will leave tomorrow for Berkeley, where she will spend the rest of the winter. Mrs. Ralph E. Hoag left last night or Ogden, where she will be at home o her friends at the Reed hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McIntyre are comfortably settled in the old Peyton name on B and Seventh streets.

Captain and Mrs. Shanks of the Sixteenth returned Tuesday morning from a visit to their home in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lear Riter will remain at the home of Mrs. Katz until they go into the new home in the spring.

♦ ♦ ♦ The three Miss Cannon have returned from Pocatello, where they have been spending the holidays with parents. Mr. and Mrs. Joshua F. Grant spent two days in Ogden last week attending the Spencer party and visiting friends, Miss Breeden had as her guests during the week Misses Nellie McGuire, Meda Corey and Verna Barrows of Og-

Miss Lucile Jennings, who has been spending the holidays at home with her parents, returns today to her school is Logan.

Mrs. J. W. Pike of San Francisco Cal., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert S. Tiernan, at 375 East Fifth South

Messrs. Kelsey, Shoemaker, Beri Sheller and Charles Luce left during the week to visit with friends in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hanson of Og-den, who have been visiting with friends in the city, returned to Ogden during the week.

♦ ♦ ♦ Yesterday morning Mrs. S. B. Milner

Yesterday morning Mrs. S. B. Milhel left with her three sons for a trip to Europe. The two older boys will go to Germany, while Mrs. Milner and the youngest son will remain in Wales.

OGDEN.

An important event of the holiday eason came Wednesday evening, when society, in response to attractive invi-tations announcing the affair as "formal." jurned its attention to the New Year's ball at Dignan's. The crowds began gathering in the spacious and handsomely decorated reception rooms nandsomely decorated reception rooms at 9 o'clock and soon 100 couples, in-cluding most of the members of the Wednesday Night club and their guests, were on hand. The refresh-ment stands on the stage were draped under Turkish canopies, while the stage and entire hall were tastefully decorated for the occasion, and dancing continued until 1 o'clock.

♦ ♦ ♦
The annual ball and banquet of the Weber club has been set for Jan. 20 at the Dignan academy.

The last ball of the series was given Thursday evening by the Ontario club at Dignan's hall. This club is composed of the younger society set. The ball Thursday evening was one of the social successes of the season. It was characterized as such by the members who attended, and a general spirit of gayety pervaded the atmosphere of the ball room. There were many beauti-ful and dainty gowns in evidence, and the young people heartly enjoyed themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Henderson returned last week from the east and are at the Reed.

J. B. Twiford has removed his family to Salt Lake. Miss Jennie Walker of Salt Lake returned home Tuesday.

Miss Juliette Marks spent New Year's in Salt Lake with her parents. Mrs. D. W. Ellis returned Thursday from Grand Junetic

E. C. Okon left last week for California to visit on the coast for about a month,

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Burton were Brigham City visitors last week.

A farewell party was given Friday evening in the Second ward in honor of Walter Herrick, who leaves this week for California, where he expects Miss Blanche Franke and A.

Misses Ida and Gertrude Pratt of Salt Lake are the guests of their brother, A. E. Pratt.

The Bohemian club is to give a series of parties at Dignan's, the first of which is to be Jan. 14.

Mrs. Richard Beasley of Provo is in he city visiting her sister, Mrs. E. G. Hunt.

New Year's evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Josephine Hirst, Miss Ethel Hirst became the wife of C. H. Turner. About thirty friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony, performed by Rev. Goshen Miss Florence Turner presided at the piano. Miss Mable Knauss was ringbearer and Miss Florence Hirst acted as bridesmaid. The happy couple will be at home to their many friends after Feb. 1, on Adams avenue.

Misses T. Baker, C. Eayrs, R. Tyler, M. Hume, M. Corey, V. Barrows, J. Wright, T. Gwilliams, N. Maguire, F. Miller, E. Armstrong, I. A. V. Eccles and N. Bennett review helf many friends New Year's day home of Miss Tyler,

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Spencer enter-Mrs. J. F. Dunn leaves early in the tained Tuesday evening in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding annivermrs. Reynolds and Mr. Hume were the lucky winners of the head prizes, a silver plate and silver cigar receiver, while Mrs. J. Grant and Mr. Kucher were the winners of a silver spoon and silver collar box. The home was tastefully decorated in pink and white serfully decorated in pink and white car-nations, and the evening ended with a tempting supper.

Misses Hirst and Gourlay entertained

ast evening at the home of Miss Mrs. P. C. Koerner was hostess Friday afternoon to a few of her lady

♦ ♦ ♦ Miss Higginbotham left Thursday for San Francisco, where she is to be mar-erspoon.

Miss Bertha Eccles entertained New Year's evening. Edmond Allard was the recipient of a pleasant surprise New Year's eve, in honor of his eighteenth birthday. Mu-sic and games were indulged in, after which dainty refreshments were served. Miss Dorothy Matson was hostess at Gardner, Miss Adele Loring, Miss Ella die, Rutlarb and Spitzer. The remainder of the time was spent in games, and H. A. Hansen.

The Century Whist club was delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Loring gave a pleasant party Friday evening in hon-